Criminal No. 04-10194-RCL )

U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASS.

MOTION OF WITNESS BRYAN RAFTERY TO QUASH SUBPOENA

The witness Bryan Raftery, moves this Court to quash the Subpoena In A Criminal Case dated February 14, 2006 and served on him on February 22, 2006, commanding him to appear in the above-entitled matter on March 20, 2006. In support of this motion, the witness states the following:

(1) On February 14, 2006, the government issued a Subpoena In A Criminal Case, which was served on the witness on February 22, 2006 at his home at 310 Fellsvie Terrace, Stoneham, MA by Drug Enforcement Special Agent Mark G. Tully.

(2) The said subpoena, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, commands the witness, "...to appear in the United States District Court" on March 20, 2006, "...or any subsequent place, date and time set by the court, to testify in the above-referenced case. This subpoena shall remain in effect until ...(the witness is) granted leave to depart by the court or by an officer acting on behalf of the court".

(3) In a letter dated February 27, 2006, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B, to Assistant United States Attorney John McNeil and Assistant United States Attorney S. Theodore Merritt, "In order to assess (the witness') legal status," counsel for the witness requested that the government furnish him with the following:

- Bryan Raftery's testimony before the grand jury on or about June 29, 2004
- Bryan Raftery's statements and/or reports regarding same made by him at the Stoneham Police Department to Stoneham Police Officer Norton, State Police Officer O'Neil, Special DEA Agent Tully and/or any other local, state or federal law enforcement agents or officials on or about December 8, 2004
- Bryan Raftery's statements and/or reports regarding same made by him at his home at 310 Fellsvie Terrace, Stoneham, MA to Special DEA Agent Tully and/or any other local, state or federal law enforcement agents or officials on or about February 22, 2006
- Bryan Raftery's statements and/or reports regarding same made by him during the course of a telephone conversation(s) with Special DEA Agent Tully and/or any other local, state or federal law enforcement agents or officials on or about February 23, 2006

(4) During the course of telephone conversations on February 2 and 6, 2006, counsel for the government informed counsel for the witness that it would not furnish the witness with the said requested documents.

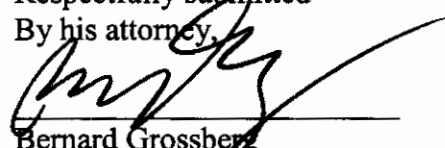

(5) Without access to the said requested documents, counsel for the witness is not able to evaluate or otherwise assess the witness' legal status in regard to his commanded testimony before this Court at the trial of the above-entitled matter and counsel cannot therefore, advise him accordingly.

(6) The government will not be prejudiced in any regard by furnishing counsel for the witness with the said requested documents; whereas, the witness will be irrevocably prejudiced by being compelled to testify before this Court without prior access to the said requested documents and consultation with his counsel. Compelling the witness to testify before this Court in such circumstances violates the witness' rights to due process of law and fundamental fairness, as well as, his right to the effective assistance of counsel guaranteed him by the Fifth and Sixth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

WHEREFORE, witness Bryan Raftery prays that this Court quash the Subpoena In A Criminal Case dated February 14, 2006 and served on him on February 22, 2006.

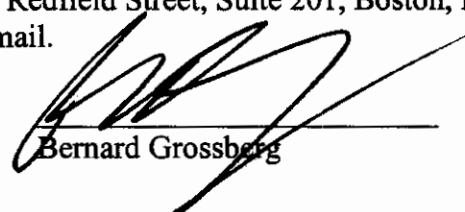

Respectfully submitted
By his attorney,

Bernard Grossberg

Re: UNITED STATES V. ANTHONY BUCCI, ET. AL.
Criminal No. 01-10194-RCL

Dear Messrs. McNeil and Merritt:

Please be advised that I represent Mr. Bryan Raferty of 310 Fellsvie Terrace, Stoneham, MA. I am in receipt of the Subpoena In A Criminal Case that you caused to be served on him on February 22, 2006 and which directs him to appear in the above-referenced matter on March 20, 2006. In order to assess Mr. Raferty's legal status, I would greatly appreciate it and I hereby request that you furnish me forthwith the following:

- Bryan Raferty's testimony before the grand jury on or about June 29, 2004
- Bryan Raferty's statements and/or reports regarding same made by him at the Stoneham Police Department to Stoneham Police Officer Norton, State Police Officer O'Neil, Special DEA Agent Tully and/or any other local, state or federal law enforcement agents or officials on or about December 8, 2004
- Bryan Raferty's statements and/or reports regarding same made by him at his home at 310 Fellsvie Terrace, Stoneham, MA to Special DEA Agent

John McNeil, Esq.
S. Theodore Merritt, Esq.

February 27, 2006

Tully and/or any other local, state or federal law enforcement agents or officials on or about February 22, 2006

- Bryan Rafferty's statements and/or reports regarding same made by him during the course of a telephone conversation(s) with Special DEA Agent Tully and/or any other local, state or federal law enforcement agents or officials on or about February 23, 2006

Please direct any and all future correspondence and/or requests for contact regarding my client directly to me. Please be advised that my client expressed concerns regarding Special DEA Agent Tully's repeated questioning of him during the course of the service of the said subpoena on him on February 22, 2006 after my client unequivocally informed the agent that he was represented by counsel and that he did not agree to be questioned and/or interviewed without the presence of counsel. My client was also concerned that the day following service of the subpoena, after my client had invoked his right to counsel, Special DEA Agent Tully telephoned him on February 23, 2006 and again endeavored to interview him. I trust that there will be no such contact in the future. I look forward to hearing from you in response to the above.

Sincerely,

Bernard Grossberg
